JURYMEN IN DEMAND

One Kamalo Claim
Has Been Fully Satisfied.

George A. Davis Brings
Suit for Thousand Dollar Fee.

Fire Claim Dispute—Small Criminal Clearance—New Suits and Other Notes.

Judge De Bolt did not have many jurors to run to anyway, but when the first insurance case of the sanitary fire series had been tried there were not enough left to fill the box for the next. Those in the first one were disqualified. Therefore on Tuesday evening a special venire was issued, under which the following talesmen appeared yesterday morning: W. F. Love, H. Zerbe, John Crowell, Emmett May, Harry Armistead, John Grube, Edgar Henriques, John C. Lane, John H. Jones, George T. Kluegel, E. K. Nauauo, George Cypher, John F. Soper, F. P. McIntyre and Samuel Nowlein.

An attempt to get a jury out of this list and the old remnant failed, the case being Kwong Lee Yuen & Co. vs. Manchester Fire Insurance Co. Too many of the men knew too much about the 1899-1900 fires, or had previously been jurors in cases relating to those events, to be acceptable. Therefore the court ordered another special venire, under which the following talesmen are summoned to appear this morning: James B. Castle, David F. Notley, James E. Jaeger, R. W. Holt, J. M. Coulson, J. A. Lawelawe, Edward Barker, F. Meyer, M. C. Pacheco, David F. Thrum, W. B. Hamilton, J. K. Prendergast, Henry Mahiai, Millie Lancaster, Robert Fern, W. B. McCormick, A. H. K. Keohokale, C. J. Falk, E. I. Spalding, L. J. Nahora, Hida, David Aea, John Chalmers, Joseph B. Pakele and C. P. Iaukea.

By consent of Mr. Ballou for plaintiff and Mr. Robertson for defendant in each case, Judge De Bolt continued Sing Chan Co. vs. the Svea Insurance Co. and Sing Chan Co. vs. the Insurance Co. of North America for the term.

JUDGE ROBINSON ALSO.

Before Judge Robinson the case of Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., vs. W. R. Castle et al., came on for trial yesterday morning. As it involved questions similar to those in the suit of the same plaintiff against L. A. Thurston decided the previous day, the same jurors could not serve and a special venire was issued whereby the following named men are summoned to appear at 10 o'clock this morning: W. M. Temuleton, Chas. Lewis, Hiram Kolomoku, E. M. Legros, Chas. Frasher, Eli J. Crawford, William Berlovitz, George Watt, E. H. Wodehouse, James D. Cockett, E. W. Valkenberg, W. F. O'Halloran, J. M. Levy, J. O. Spencer, John Emmeluth, Isaac Noar, J. J. Sullivan, John Ouderklirk, W. F. Bush, W. H. Babbitt, G. W. Hayselden, George W. Clark, M. P. Robinson and W. R. Chilton.

SMALL CLEARANCE.

Judge Gear ordered that Kogno, who appealed from a fine of $100 and costs for selling liquor without a license, be dismissed on paying fine and costs. A nolle prosequi was entered for the same defendant in a second case of like kind.

Manuel Silva, who was fined $5 and costs by former District Magistrate Geo. A. Davis for common nuisance in breaking a bottle on the sidewalk, had his case dismissed by Judge Gear.

Saguma and Machino, sentenced by Davis to pay fines of $75 and costs each, and Iwanaga, sentenced to pay $100 and costs for the like offence, by the same judge, were each released at the request of the Attorney-General.

Robert Kekapa, fined $50 and costs by the late District Magistrate Wilcox for conducting a game called kino, had his fine reduced to $10 and costs. Owing to the constitutional snag encountered as elsewhere reported, Judge Gear excused his trial jurors until Monday morning.

KAMALO CLAIM PAID.

Execution for $1575.55, including all costs, in the suit of Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd., vs. Kamalo Sugar Co., Ltd., has been returned as fully satisfied by Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth, who collected the money and distributed it, the amount paid the plaintiff being $1507.75.

FIRE CLAIM CASE.

Ching Lum answers the complaint of Kamakaukani Woolsey, in a bill for accounting on a fire claim award of $965. He denies that he agreed to pay complainant any part of the award. While she has erected no building on the premises since the fire, it is further alleged, he has expended $1800 in a new building thereon, making the premises more valuable to the plaintiff as lessor than they were before the fire.

DAVIS AND HIS FEE.

George A. Davis has brought an assumpsit suit for the January, 1904, term against Libana de Nobrega, claiming one thousand dollars as attorney's fee in defendant's divorce suit and costs of the present action. Sylvano de Nobrega, the divorced husband, gave a mortgage against the alimony ordered in the case, but there was no provision made for Davis's fee.

OTHER NEW SUITS.

Tom Been has given notice of mechanic and materialmen's lien against Filumena Benevides for $168.50 upon a house and lot in Kalihi tract.

Allan W. T. Bottomley as trustee has begun suit against L. R. Medeiros and J. P. Rodrigues for $700 alleged to be due the Washington Mercantile Co. on the purchase of the store at the Wai-kiki corner of King and Beckley streets in Kalihi. It is alleged that the property known as "The Kalihi Store," together with its stock and fixtures and a horse and wagon, was sold to the defendants on January 28, 1900. The purchase price was $4700 and thirty-four shares of the capital stock of the Washington Mercantile Co. and it is alleged that the stock was turned over, but that only $4,000 has been paid. Judgment is asked for the remainder, $700, with interest.

NOTICES.

In the ejectment case of James H. Cummings vs. Lousana Noble, Leon M. Strauss by his attorneys, Long & Long, replies to Holmes & Stanley's notice to admit facts and documents by denying that he is defendant's attorney, but pleads to the jurisdiction of the court so that defendant may not be deprived of her legal rights.

Castle & Withington for defendant admit the facts and documents as requested by Holmes & Stanley for plaintiff in the ejectment case of the Bishop Estate Trustees against Lullia, saving exceptions to their admissibility as evidence.

Robertson & Wilder file their appearance for defendant in the suits of the Gear, Lansing & Co. trustees and T. F. Lansing, severally, against Emmett May.

Judge Robinson has issued a notice that on Monday next at 10 a. m. he will call, for the purpose of setting down as ready for trial, all the even numbered cases from 126 to 176 inclusive.

COURT NOTES.

The verdict for plaintiff in the ejectment suit of Kapiolani Estate vs. Thurston excepted a certain portion of land containing an area of 363 fathoms. J. R. Galt, P. H. Burnette and P. D. Kelleit, Jr., appraisers, have placed the value of the estate of the late William Phillips at $26,650.

13. Decree of registration.
14. Notice of disposal of petition.
15. Claim of appeal.

ANOTHER ARREST FOR PEONAGE

Miyamura, a Japanese who is regarded by the federal authorities as a high-toned gambler and rascal, was arrested for peonage on Tuesday night by Marshal E. R. Hendry. He lived in a house in King street, near Liliha, where he was captured. There he kept in slavery a girl whom he had bought and who is described as beautiful. Her name is Shiye and she was arrested on a bench warrant yesterday morning for detention, with bail fixed at $250, as a witness.

Money was found in drawers and trunks all over the house, a large amount in the aggregate, the marshal says. Miyamura was fashionably dressed and sporting a Panama hat when apprehended. His bail is $5000.

Willing to oblige Mrs. Goodart—"See here! If I give you some money I don't want you to spend it in that saloon over there." Thirsty Tom—"All right, lady. If you're outin' for some under point I'll be glad to patronize it."—Philadelphia Press.

MARRIED AN ITALIAN NOBLEMAN

On Tuesday, Sept. 15, at high noon at the residence of Col. Z. S. Spalding at Kealia, Kauai, Bishop Restarick united in marriage Miss Alice Makee Spalding and Count Leonardo Ercole Bonzi. The ceremony took place in the large hall of Col. Spalding's residence and it was witnessed by some sixty friends from various parts of the island. Besides the father of the bride, her brother, James Spalding, and her uncle, Charles Makee, were present. The mother of the bride is in Rome, Italy, a confirmed invalid, and unable to travel.

After the marriage the wedding party and the guests adjourned to a sumptuous breakfast. Following the usual toasts Col. Spalding was proposed and his response was a most happy one. After expressing his pleasure at seeing his friends and neighbors and referring in a most touching way to the absent wife and mother who had planned the grounds and planted the trees and made the beautiful home as it is seen now, he spoke of the young couple.

The Count had met his daughter in Italy and had seen a good deal of her. Some two months ago in answering a call at the telephone he thought that he recognized a voice, but as he had never heard that voice speak English before he asked: "Who is this?" "Bonzi," was the reply. Count Bonzi had taken a tour round the world and had acquired a good knowledge of the English language.

Col. Spalding went on to say that he was glad to announce that Count Bonzi and his wife after a trip to Italy were to return and to reside at Kealia.

The bride and groom, Bishop Restarick, Geo. H. Fairchild and Col. Spalding left Anahola on the steamer Kauai at 5 p. m. Tuesday arriving in Honolulu at 6 a. m. yesterday. The newly married couple and the father of the bride left on the Alameda at 9 a. m. yesterday. Among those who were on the wharf were the aunts of the bride, Mrs. Dr. Herbert and Mrs. E. D. Tenney.

The bride was born on the Islands and left some twelve years ago for Europe where with her mother she has passed most of the intervening time. She met Count Bonzi in Rome where both of them used regularly to ride after the hounds at the bi-weekly hunting meets.

Count Bonzi was in the Italian army and was for some years in the King's guards. On his leaving Rome the King of Italy gave him a present of a handsome watch. His home is at Crema, near Milan. There his mother resides and there he will take his wife.

Count Bonzi intends to resign from the army and to return to the Islands in December. Every one who has met him speaks of him in the highest terms and he has gained the hearts of those who have known him during his two months' stay. He is about thirty years of age, quite tall and of attractive appearance.

Col. Spalding has two daughters who are married and who live in Italy. He is gratified that he will have one with him on Kauai which he says is his home and which is to him the pleasantest spot on earth. His return is uncertain owing to the precarious condition of Mrs. Spalding's health.

FOR SPRAINS, SWELLINGS AND LAMENESS there is no better liniment than Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Thousands can testify to the merit of this remedy. One application gives relief. Try it. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., Wholesale Agents, sell it.

KILOHANA ART LEAGUE AT HOME

Cards are about to be issued for the first literary Art Home for the season, of the Kilohana Art League. The scattered members of the League are returning to town from the other islands and the mainland, with new sketches and fresh ideas for other things to be accomplished.

The annual meeting and election of officers takes place early in October. "A Study in Aesthetics," by Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle, will be the attraction at the coming Art Home, which is set for Saturday afternoon, September 26.

TWO KINDS OF CHILDREN

Children that grow too fast and those that seem hardly to grow at all, both need Scott's Emulsion.

It gives that rich vital nourishment which is the secret of all healthy growth. It rounds out the long limbs, and helps children to grow without using up all their strength in growing.

Mothers ought to know more about the wonderful help which Scott's Emulsion would give their children.

There is no secret about Scott's Emulsion. Nothing is covered up by obscure references to "active principles" or "alkaloids."

Scott's Emulsion is simply an emulsion of the best Norwegian cod liver oil combined with the hypophosphites and glycerin.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.
